=============== smartision ScreenCopy is a Windows application whose purpose is to help you capture your screen activity to images and automatically save them to your computer. Clean design You are welcomed by a simple design that allows you to preview the captured photos directly in the main window. Plus, you can make the program show or hide advanced parameters in/from the primary panel. An online help manual is available in case you need extra assistance with the configuration settings. Take screenshots smartision ScreenCopy offers you the possibility to automatically capture photos at a custom time interval (in seconds). In addition, you are allowed to limit the number of pictures taken in the automatic mode to a user-defined number. The captured photos can be exported to JPEG or BMP file format. Other important tweaking parameters worth being mentioned enable you to set up the filenames of the output items based on window caption, current date, current time, or number, capture the entire desktop, active window, or window by caption, automatically hide smartision ScreenCopy's primary panel when taking snapshots, reassign hotkeys which can be used to capture images and turn on the automatic mode, and play preset or user-defined audio files (WAV file format). When it comes to setting up image output parameters, you can change the color depth of BMP files, adjust the JPEG compression quality, as well as resize pictures. A screenshot browser is implemented for helping you preview the captured photos, go to the next or previous item, open the picture via your default viewer, sort files by name or date, copy filename to the clipboard, open the folder where the selected photo is stored, as well as filter snapshots by name or date. In addition, the application lets you create HTML screenshot galleries which may have a custom title, user-defined text message that is shown before/after the images on the HTML pages, maximum number of files, and a preferred background color. At the end of the process you can make the tool show the gallery. Tests have pointed out that smartision ScreenCopy carries out tasks quickly and provides very good output results. It remains light on system resources so the overall performance of the computer is not hampered. You may keep it running in the background. �?�?� Thank you!? �Like the App?� Hit the +1 button �Want to see more apps like this?� Subscribe! b7e8fdf5c8
